Position Title: After Care Educator

Position Purpose: The New Haven Land Trust seeks an After Care Camp Educator to supervise youth in the after care program of Schooner Camp youth (ages 6-14) that incorporates land and sea based programing on New Haven's unique coastline. The camp’s goal is to provide a dynamic and fun educational experience for children each week. The person selected for this position will be responsible for supervising youth, leading activities, playing games, following all camp safety and dismissal protocols. Camp is based out of the Sound School, in New Haven, and uses the adjacent Bayview Park and Long Wharf Nature Preserve for programming.

Length of Employment and Scheduling Details: Seasonal, 12-15 hours per week from 2:45pm-5:15pm or until all campers have been picked up. The camp runs from late June until mid-August. An ideal candidate would be available for all weeks of camp.

Compensation: $15/hour based on the fixed hours listed above

Reports to: Camp Director

Position Qualifications:

- Must be age 21 or older
- Positive attitude and approach to working with youth in ways that convey a deep understanding of their development needs.
- Ability to interact with adults and co-workers in a positive and professional manner.
- Ability to be creative and flexible.
- Successful completion of background checks and any training required by camp.
